33 You Know You are Hijacked by Pride:

I know I'm prideful when...

1. I demand you see things the way I see them.
2. When I refuse to consider the needs of others over my own.
3. When I hold a grudge.
4. Desire to see setbacks in other people's lives that I envy or compare myself to. Secretly rejoice in your downfalls.
5. Refuse to forgive you and forget what you owe me for the pain you caused me.
6. I demand my own way: that you love me the way I want you to.
7. I want what you have.
8. I refuse to own my part in arguments and confrontations.
9. I refuse to ask for your forgiveness
10. I demand that you respect me, accept me, understand me.
11. When I judge you for doing life differently than me.
12. I resent you.
13. I envy you.
14. I mindread and make assumptions.
15. Tell someone else's story (gossip)
16. I'm insecure.
17. Have attachments that I'm devoted to more than God.
18. Refuse to humble myself, take credit for the work God is doing in my life.
19. Refuse to give you the last word.
20. Refuse to be the first to apologize.
21. I doubt God is trustworthy.
22. I doubt God has my back and will work out everything for an ultimate good.
23. When I play the victim, accuse a villain or play helpless.
24. Feel people owe me something: respect, money, time, attention, acceptance.
25. Want you to think the way I think, feel the way I feel.
26. When I refuse to come under the authority of someone else in leadership.
27. When I can't rejoice in the success of others over my own.
28. When I have a spirit of rebellion.
29. When I catastrophize.
30. Judge others.
31. Have all or nothing thinking that fuels fear, self-doubt and worry.
32. I have a bad attitude in the midst of undesirable circumstances. When I don't get my way.
33. I need to understand and KNOW in order to trust God. "If my people which are called by my name shall humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sins and heal their land." 2 Chronicles 7:14
